

Valid Foreign Driving License in Japan

Estonia driving license holders are allowed to drive in Japan from April 1st, 2018.

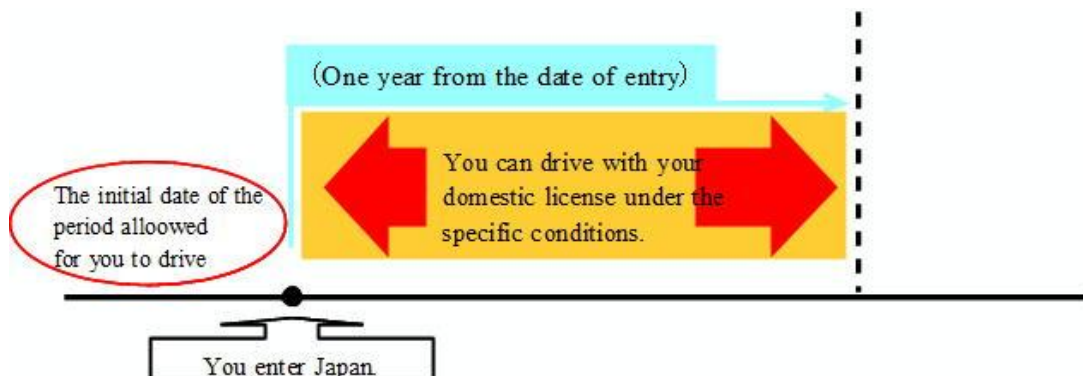

Driving licenses issued by the authorities of Belgium, Estonia, France, Germany, Monaco, Slovenia, Switzerland, or Taiwan are valid in Japan under the following conditions:

1. You shall carry the Japanese translation prepared by a Cabinet-Order-specifying authority along with the original license.

The authorities specified by a Cabinet Order are as follows:

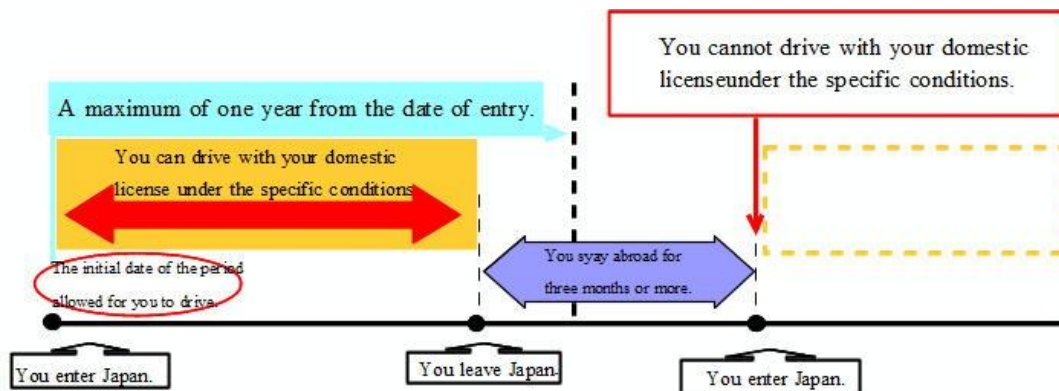

- (1) The license-issuing authority, or the embassy or consulate of the issuing country.
- (2) The Japan-Taiwan Relations Association (for Taiwanese license holders).
- (3) The Japan Automobile Federation (JAF).

2. You shall be allowed to drive with such foreign licenses for a maximum of one year from the date of your entry into Japan.

3. If you are a registered resident in Japan, you shall spend more than three consecutive months overseas prior to the reentry. (The Road Traffic Act, Article 107-2)

- ◇ In case you reenter Japan in less than three months after leaving the country:
You shall not drive with your domestic license regardless of its validity.

- ◇ In case you reenter Japan after you stay abroad for three months or more:
You may drive with your domestic license under the specific conditions.

